

... RAPPER

TURNED TV star Sticky Fingaz got good news this week in Manhattan Criminal Court, where prosecutors dropped gun-possession charges against him after they could not prove a gun found under a bed was his. The star of FX's "Over There," aka Kirk Jones, was arrested in October after a housekeeper in the midtown Flatotel told police Jones had left a loaded pistol in the room he occupied, The News' Barbara Ross reports. Jones had used the room while filming a movie "Karma, Confessions and Holi" with another denizen of Manhattan Criminal Court, Naomi Campbell. "Cleary [the Manhattan District Attorney's office] did the right thing, and there was a just result because that wasn't his gun," Jones' lawyer, Joseph Tacopina, said yesterday. ...