Veteran legal eagle Joe Tacopina is as comfortable in the spotlight as his celebrity clients — and dresses just as well, too.

The Brooklyn-born ex-prosecutor is no stranger to big-time trials. Known for his courtroom acumen, custom-made suits and slicked-back hair, Tacopina, 47, has represented cops and accused cop killers, models and mobsters, rap stars and a Rikers Island official — all while scoring a number of stunning acquittals.

Here's a look at some of his bold-faced clients and high-profile cases:

Tacopina (l.) leaves court with one-time cop Kenneth Moreno, who was acquitted of rape. (Bryan Smith for New York Daily News)

NYPD Officer Thomas Wiese, accused and acquitted in the Abner Louima case.

Model Kat McManamon( Jon Naso)

Model Kat McManamon, busted for making death threats against actress Elizabeth Berkley and her boyfriend.

Disgraced Queens pol Hiram Monserrate, with Tacopina's counsel, dodged most serious rap in slashing of girlfriend. (David Pokress for New York Daily News)
